

August Madness!

On the back of this handout is a tournament bracket containing the important historical figures of psychology. Your job is to carefully evaluate the contenders and choose who survives to the next round, ultimately choosing a champion!

As you evaluate the people, consider how they are similar, how they differ, as well as their overall contribution to psychology. From this information, decide who you feel deserves to make it to the next round!

Round 1

Blue Division	Similarities	Differences	Winner	Justification
Socrates & Plato vs. Descartes
Aristotle vs. Locke

Red Division	Similarities	Differences	Winner	Justification
Bacon vs. Wundt
Calkins vs. Washburn

Round 2

Blue Division	Similarities	Differences	Winner	Justification

Red Division	Similarities	Differences	Winner	Justification

Final

Final Matchup	Similarities	Differences	Winner	Justification

