

Expressed Emotion

PsychSim 5 http://courses.bfwpub.com/arga/PsychSim_ARGA2/07_expressingEmotion/index_angel.html

In this activity you will learn about the role of facial expressions in the nonverbal communication of emotion.

Primary Affects

What emotions are generally considered primary affects? How do they relate to facial expressions?

The Facial Code

Using the table below, describe the characteristic positions of the eyebrows, eyes, and mouth for each of the six primary affects.

	Eyebrows	Eyes	Mouth
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.

How does the expression of disgust differ from the other primary affects?

Emotional Blends

What are emotional blends? How do people generally express them?

Masking Emotion

How are people able to mask emotions?